Subject Description Form

Subject Code	LGT4209
Subject Title	GSCM Capstone Project
Credit Value	6
Level	4
Normal Duration	2-semester
Pre-requisite	LGT2106 Principles of Operations Management
Role and Purposes	This subject is a capstone course for GSCM students. The role of this subject is to provide students the opportunity to apply the knowledge acquired in their undergraduate study to advanced real-world situations. Students will draw on their broadened awareness of various business aspects to analyse real-world business problems. The purposes of studying this subject are to help develop students' global outlook through the literature research on the related research materials and data collection. The students are expected to propose the research project topic and discuss with the faculty advisor. Leadership and teamwork skills will be enhanced with the projects which students work in group. This subject also helps students recognise their own entrepreneurial potential and understand how that potential can be applied in logistics business context. This capstone project is also useful in nurturing our students with the desired attributes including problem solving skills, creativity and innovation.
Subject Learning Outcomes	Upon completion of the subject, students will be able to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Write an integrative capstone report at undergraduate degree level and present the findings openly. Develop oral and written communication skills through discussions with supervisors, presentations and final report preparation.</li> <li>Understand how to apply ideas and insights from different functional areas to the process involved in creating innovative concepts. (Outcome 3)</li> <li>Adopt an entrepreneurial perspective to identify if there are any business opportunities that may arise from a capstone project. (Outcome 5)</li> <li>Evaluate and demonstrate their ability on integrating learning from all undergraduate subjects.</li> <li>Demonstrate their professionally-specific skills and knowledge needed to make an immediate contribution to the workplace and a foundation for professional development (Outcome 11)</li> </ol>
Subject Synopsis/ Indicative Syllabus	An introductory seminar will inform students of the rational structure of the project. The seminar will also cover basic research skills to better prepare the students for the capstone project. Each student will complete a proposal and identify a suitable supervisor. The student will meet the supervisor frequently to

	discuss directions and report on progress. Towards the end of the project, the student will collate and analyse the data, and will write and submit a final report. The subject will spread over the last 2 semesters of the students' final year study. The first semester is to introduce basic research methods useful for understanding organisational behaviours and business practices that could be a topic for the capstone project. The subject will examine applied research methods relevant to practitioners involved in organisational learning. It will include the identification of a research project, the development of the proposal and the planning of the project. The second semester of the subject will involve the analysis of the data and the actual writing and reporting of the research findings and conclusions.
Teaching/Learning Methodology	Each student will be supervised by an academic staff member. All students may meet their supervisors to discuss, consult and be advised throughout the whole research period. To help student understand the importance of academic honesty and learn ways to ensure that their work and behaviour at PolyU are acceptable in this regard, students are required to complete the Online Tutorial on Academic Integrity via Blackboard (LEARN@PolyU) prior to group formation and initial project proposal submission. It takes approximately two hours to complete.
